Publication Agreement

Agreement: We are pleased to have the privilege of publishing your Article in a forthcoming issue of Neural Computation. By your signature below, you hereby grant to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) all your right, title, and interest including copyright in and to the Article.

Rights Reserved by Author: You hereby retain and reserve for yourself a non-exclusive license in either print or electronic media*: 1.) to distribute the Article for use in your own teaching and research activities, and 2.) to publish the Article, or permit it to be published, as a part of any book you may write, or in any anthology of which you are an editor, in which the Article is included or which expands or elaborates on the Article, unless the anthology is drawn primarily from Neural Computation. You also retain the right to post the Article on your website twelve months after it has been published in Neural Computation so long as the Article is not offered for sale or distribution. As a condition of reserving the preceding rights, you agree that MIT and Neural Computation will be given first publication credit, and proper copyright notice will be displayed on the work (both on the work as a whole and, where applicable, on the Article as well) whenever such publication or electronic display occurs.

*Electronic use is initially limited to draft/manuscript versions until one (1) year after the date of publication in Neural Computation. Electronic use permitted to the author does NOT include incorporation of the article in any electronically published journal. Permitted electronic versions should be accompanied by the following statement:

The final version of this article will be published [or "has been published", if applicable], in Neural Computation, Vol. ___, Issue ___, published by The MIT Press.

Electronic versions should, if possible, also contain the following hypertextual link: http://mitpress.mit.edu/NECO

Rights of MIT Press: This agreement means that MIT Press will have, in all media, the following exclusive rights among others: 1.) to license abstracts, quotations, extracts, reprints, and/or translations of the work for publication 2.) to license reprints of the Article to third persons for educational photocopying 3.) to license others to create abstracts of the Article 4.) to license secondary publishers to reproduce the Article in print, microform, or any computer readable form including electronic on-line databases. This also includes licensing the Article for document delivery.

Warranties: You warrant that the Article has not been published before in any form, that you have made no license or other transfer to anyone with respect to your copyright in it, that you are its sole author (s), and generally that you have the right to make the grants you make to us. Any exceptions are to be noted below. You also warrant that the Article does not libel anyone, invade anyone's privacy, infringe anyone's copyright, or otherwise violate any statutory or common law right of anyone. You agree to indemnify us against any claim or action alleging facts which, if true, constitute a breach of any of the foregoing warranties.

Concerning U.S. Government Employees: Some of the foregoing grants and warranties will not apply if the Article was written by U.S. Government employees acting within the scope of their employment. U.S. government employees may reserve the right to reproduce the Article for U.S. government purposes by checking this box __ or, if no copyright can be asserted in this work and it should be considered in the public domain, please check this box __.

In Conclusion: This is the entire agreement between you and us, and it may be modified only in writing. It will bind and benefit our respective successors in interest, including assignees, and our licensees, provided that you may not assign this Agreement without our prior written consent. It will terminate if we do not publish your Article within two years of the date of your signature(s).

I (we) concur in this letter of agreement:

Neural Computation and MIT hereby acknowledge their consent to the terms of the foregoing agreement.
